

Section 100.435    Distribution and Transfer Prohibition/Exceptions

- a) Except as expressly permitted by the Liquor Control Act, no license holder other than a licensed distributor, including but not limited to a licensed manufacturer, non-resident dealer, ~~or brew pub, or retailer,~~ shall sell or transfer alcoholic liquor to ~~a any person licensed retailer to sell alcoholic liquor at retail.~~
- b) The Liquor Control Act ~~expressly~~ permits the ~~below referenced~~ following license holders to sell or transfer alcoholic liquor to ~~licensed~~ retailers under limited conditions:
- 1) Maker of wine under the conditions set forth in Section 100.420;
  - 2) Class 1 brewer under the conditions set forth in Section 100.430;
  - 3) Brew pub ~~license holder~~ for the transfer of ~~its manufactured~~ beer ~~that it has manufactured to a separate other~~ wholly owned brew pub ~~and~~ with approval of the State Commission;
  - 4) Retailer if it sells or transfers no more than $500 to Not-For-Profit license holders ~~per licensed event;~~
  - 5) Retailer if it sells or transfers to another ~~license holder~~ license holder in which the transfer was not in the ordinary course of business such as a business closure as reviewed and approved pursuant to a Commission approved one-time transfer request by the Commission.

Formatted: Indent: Left: 1", Hanging: 0.5"

Formatted: Indent: Left: 1", Hanging: 0.5"

Formatted: Indent: Left: 1", Hanging: 0.5"